The undersigned, a committee appointed by the Judge of the County Court, and the Mayor of the City of Nashville, to examine into alleged charges against sundry slaves now in jail, belonging to Dr. McGavock, Judge Turner, and others, of a conspi racy for insurrection, report, after a careful inquiry, that they find no evidence of any insurrection ry tendencies or purposes by said slaves, and they recommend that said slaves be discharged from confinement. In regard to the confessions and statements of the slaves of Mr. John P. Erwin, the undersigned would remark that from their characters as given by their masters and others acquainted with them, the said slaves are totally unworthy of credit. There were no circumstances to corroborate their statements and many to con tradict them. Of the confessions of said slaves in reference to themselves, they were only evidence of an intention to perpetrate a private injury, in regard to which the undersigned do not deem it to be within their duty or authority to make any recommendation.

Although Camille has at least two merite—novelty and interesting situations—yet we have never satisfied ourself with the propriety of its representation. In the adaptation represented by hiss Ince, we doubt not that much of the objectionable French immorality has been pruned away. There are no expressions in it peculiarly offensive though the entire piece is evidently intended to make a heroine of a woman of very loose morals and manners. RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

REPORTED BY CAPT II. E. HARRISON, STRANDOAT AGEST. NASHVILLE. PORT OF . Daniel Boone, from Memphis;

City of Huntsville, Cairo. Departed. Aunt Letty, for New Orleans:

Rock City, ports below. Boars Lenvino - This day at 12 o'clock, Daniel Boone for Memphis; Mail boat City of Huntsvills for Cairo, at 12 o'clock; Princess, for Cincinnati at 10: Ells, for Padnesh at 10; Atlanta, for N. Orleans

THE MEMPHIS LISE-This line now plies with regularity. Passengers need apprehend no deention in their connection with St. Louis and New Orleans steamers of the first class. Their tales of charges are the same as the regular through bosts. To-day the famous Daniel Boone is the regular boat as above. Capt. Lee, her commandant, from his long experience and courteous demeasor, has become deservedly popular. The Boone is said to be unrivalled for safety and speed; sets a table calculated to put one in mind of a wedding Christmas, or thanksgiving day.

THE CAIRO LINE.-This line is composed three substantial steamers, under command of gentlemanly officers, the whole superintended by the veteran pioneer, Capt. Davis, who has established a lasting fame amongst the travelling public. This line also connects at Cairo with the New Orleans steamers. This day the nest craft City of Huntsville is the candidate for public favor at STEAMER SALLIE WEST, now looked for from St. Louis, with a bully crew and Captain too. She will mest with immediate despatch to St. Louis: The river, now being clear of ice, all desirous of making the trip can do so with safety and comfort.

THE PRINCE S .- This nest light water, home craft, having been unavoidably detained from her regular trips to Cincinnati and Louisville, by the closing of the navigation, once more enters the trade as above We trust in these trying times upon our boatmen that Capt. Aiken, the commandant, with Phill Wills, at the desk, will not lose their former patronage, but will daily accumulate hosts of new ones. Remember 10 o'clock, A. M. is her hour of departure.

THE PACKET BOAT ELLA.-The companion of the Sallie West, with Capt. Weaver on deck, and Bell presiding at the desk, will be off at 10 o'clock A. M. These two crafts ply regularly to St. Louis. Their officers are proverbial for attention to their guests, as well as punctual in attention to any transactions entrusted to their care, whether large or small: should any doubt try them.

Bu-iness. - The business of the landing still contiques quite active, with a promise of a slight decline after to-day. About the latter part of the week we look for arrivals from the Ohio. The first will probably be our friend Charley Reeder, now presiding at the desk of the Diamond, under charge of Capt. Holcroft, an old and experienced commandant, who now commences to run his commodious craft as a regular packet between this and Louisville. Next, our own home packet Umpire, Capt Cartwright, with the well-known and gentlemanly clerk, Mr. John Harris.

A CRASH.—The commodious warehouse fronting the river landing, owned and occupied by B. Lanier, came tumbling down yesterday morning .-We feel truly sorry to state that Mr. Cooper was icjured by its fall, seriously, with some others slightly, but luckily no lives were lost. The buildig was ramer an ornament to our landing while it stood erect; as it now stands, it is anything else than an ornament. The most we can say is, it now s'ands as a monument of faulty workmanship, and should serve as a warning to all who may hereafter build. A wag of a fellow observed in cur hearing, that had the bricks been better tied together, and a li tle lime used, it would have added much to its strength, as he never knew bricks I sid in sand to do much good no how.

WEATHER AND WATER .- Weather slightly cooler than the day previous, yet pleasant, as well as clear. Water slowly declining, with 41 feet on

REGULAR MEMPHIS PACKET. THE new splendld passenger steamer DANIEL HOONE, in coencection with the steamer Alconia. will leave for Memphis Webnesday, the 31st, at 12 o'clock, M., and continue in this trade all season, leaving Nashville every Wednesday and Memphis every Saturday. For passage,

HOWARD FEMALE INSTITUTE,

THIS institution is now in successful operation, and no efforts have been spared to pince it in the front rank of our Female Schools. The large increase in the number of Populs at the opening of the seaton affords substantial ground to believe that it is destined to take a position and inferior, in any respect, to the most popular institutes for Female Education in the South.
